

SECTION	CONTENT	MARKS
A	Democracy and Human Rights; Social and Environmental Responsibility; Development of Self in Society; Careers and Career Choices	20
B	Democracy and Human Rights; Social and Environmental Responsibility; Development of Self in Society; Careers and Career Choices	30
C	Democracy and Human Rights; Social and Environmental Responsibility; Development of Self in Society; Careers and Career Choices	30
TOTAL		80

SECTION A: 20 Marks

QUESTION 1- Fill in the Missing Words

Read the following sentences and complete the paragraph (Column A) by filling in the blank spaces using the list of words in Column B. Write only the appropriate word or term next to the question number (E.g. 1.11 - Life). NOTE: You may only use each term once.

A	B
As you grow up, you take on different 1.1, for example: student, partner, employee. As these change, they affect your 1.2 with others. As you grow up, your body also changes with an increase in 1.3, which are 1.4 substances produced in the body. You experience 1.5 changes, which are changes in your feelings and thinking. You may also feel 1.6, when you feel that you must do the same things as other people of your age so that you are liked by them. To be true to yourself, you need to be 1.7, which means not giving into sexual urges. You have the right to practise 1.8, which means to refuse any kind of sexual intercourse. You also have a right to 1.9, which is to be alone and to have secrets. You are 1.10 when you know who you are.	Abstinence Emotional Hormones Life roles Natural Peer pressure Privacy Relationships Responsibilities Self-aware Self-controlled Steroids Unnatural

[10]

QUESTION 2- True or False

Indicate whether the following statements are TRUE or FALSE. Give a reason if the statement is false.

- 2.1 The NQF is a set of guidelines which register the records of learner achievement.
- 2.2 SAQA is the dedicated international overseeing body of the NQF.
- 2.3 All Muslim males go to prayers on a Friday to the holy place of worship called the Mandir.
- 2.4 The founder of Buddhism was Siddharta Gautama.
- 2.5 When you go through adolescence your relationships with your parents, friends and other people change and you become easily influenced by peer pressure. These are known as social changes.

[5]QUESTION 3- Match the Columns

Match the statements in COLUMN A with the correct term(s) in COLUMN B. Write down the number from COLUMN A and only the letter from COLUMN B you think matches it.

E.g. 3.6 - L

COLUMN A	COLUMN B
3.1. Being, belonging and becoming	A) UIF
3.2. Your well-being, and ability to cope with events	B) Hinduism
3.3. The ability to think through situations carefully	C) Muslim
3.4. Have many gods and goddesses who represent two basic beliefs or Vedas: Satya (truth) and Rta (eternal order)	D) Decision-making

3.5. Deduction from your monthly salary that will be payable to you when you are in a situation where you are unable to work	E) Life roles
	F) Emotional health
	G) Life domains
	H) Critical thinking
	I) Buddhism

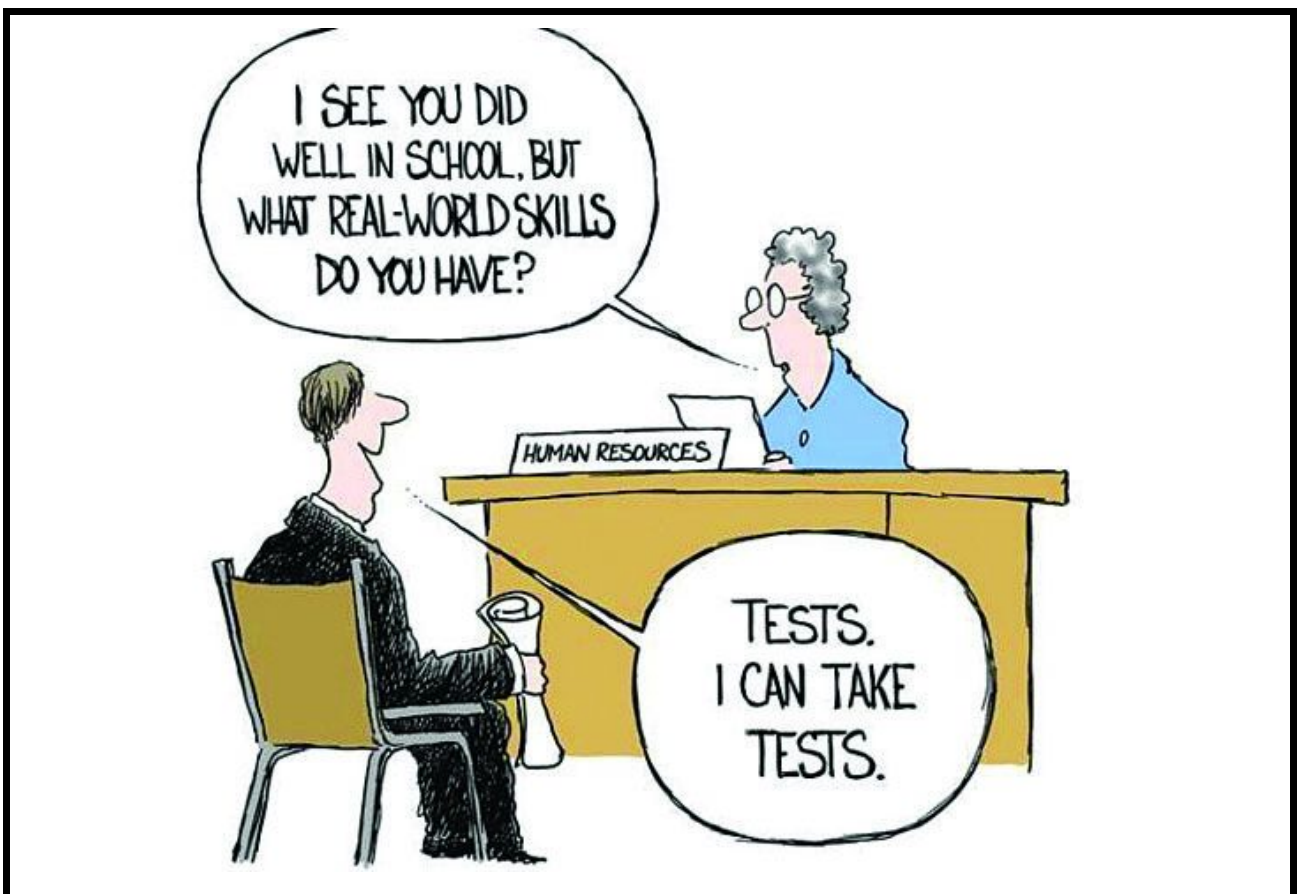

[5]

SECTION A: 20 MARKS

SECTION B: 30 Marks

QUESTION 4 – Cartoon Analysis

Read the cartoon below and answer the questions that follow:

- 4.1 Explain the difference between formal, informal and non-formal learning. (3)
- 4.2 How can lifelong learning be described? (2)
- [5]

QUESTION 5 – Case Study

Read the article below and answer the questions that follow:

Love Hurts

Susan's best friend set her up with this boy a year ago. They've been going steady ever since, but a couple of months ago he started to get really mad at her and hit her. She didn't think anything of it at the time, but ever since, he's been hitting and shouting at her a lot. She's beginning to think that it's her fault because she thinks she provokes him. She really wishes that he would just verbally explain his feelings, but she can't ask because she doesn't want him to get angry and hit her again. She doesn't know what to do because she wants to be with him and thinks that they are soul mates. Susan can't leave him because she loves him, but it hurts her physically and emotionally to be with him.

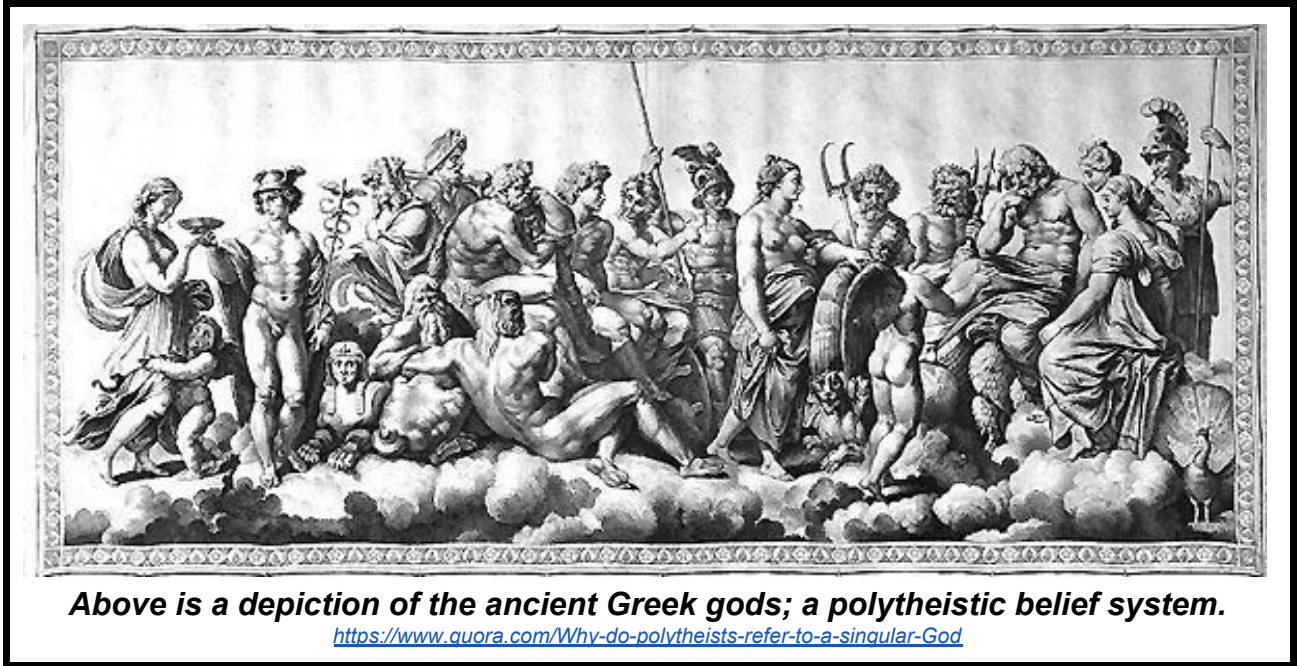

(Scenario adapted from Teenactive)

- 5.1 Explain how domestic violence can be an example of negative power relations in romantic relationships. (2)
- 5.2 What influence do you think this situation has on Susan's general well-being? Motivate your answer. (2)
- 5.3 Evaluate the heading "Love Hurts". (2)

[6]

QUESTION 6 – Application Question

Keeping the image (below) in mind answer the questions that follow:

- 6.1 Name ONE (1) religion that could be categorised as a monotheistic religion. (1)
 - 6.2 What does the word ' halaal' refer to? (1)
 - 6.3 Name the TWO (2) sacraments that Christians practice in their religion. (2)
- [4]

QUESTION 7 - Case Study

Read the article below and answer the questions that follow:

Meet the man who invented the Super Soaker — one of the best-selling toys of all time
Chris Snyder and Matthew Stuart
Aug. 17, 2017, 1:56 PM

I'm Lonnie Johnson. I'm an inventor. The invention that most people know me for is the Super Soaker water gun. I knew the gun worked well, and I knew it would be successful. I did not realise how successful it would be. It became the number one selling toy in the world.

My career started actually when I was in high school. I built a robot that won a regional science fair at the University of Alabama. I went on to work at Oak Ridge National Laboratory as a research engineer on high temperature nuclear reactors. From there to the Air Force Weapons Laboratory on advanced spacecraft that used nuclear power sources. Then to the Jet Propulsion Laboratory working on the Galileo spacecraft as a power systems engineer.

When I was at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory back in the early '80s is when I first got the idea. The Super Soaker was based on some engineering principles that I applied. I was actually working on another invention which was a heat pump that would use water as a working fluid instead of Freon.

And I shot the stream of water across the bathroom using some nozzles that I made, and I thought to myself, "Geez, if I were to develop a new type of water gun, that was a performance water gun, it could really do well.

Initially I wanted to manufacture the gun myself. It turned out it was going to cost about $200,000 to get the first thousand guns produced. And I thought to myself, I was an officer in the military the time, I didn't have $200,000 in cash laying around.

I decide to come to New York, present my ideas at Toy Fair, try to find a manufacturer that I could work with. And it was there that I met the people at Larami.

They invited me to come to their headquarters in Philadelphia. It took 2 weeks to build the gun. And as soon as it was finished, I call the guy up at Laramie, because I didn't want him to forget my conversation. I got my suitcase and went in, and of course I had my prototypes in the suitcase.

I opened it up, and they ask to see what I had, and showed them the gun. They said, "Well, does it work? How well does it work?" So I pumped it up and shot it across the conference room, and the president of the company said, "Wow!" And that was it.

I knew I captured their imagination, and the rest is history.

The other toy gun that was on the market and enjoying major success was these Nerf dart guns.

And I wanted to have that part of the market too. So I started developing Nerf dart guns, and I developed guns that outperformed the guns that Hasbro had on the market at the time. And eventually ended up doing a deal with Hasbro to license my dart guns.

And at that point, I literally was the king of all toy guns.

Adapted from: <http://www.businessinsider.com/super-soaker-inventor-lonnie-johnson-nerf-larami-hasbro-2017-8>

- 7.1 What is the name of Lonnie Johnson's two main professions (NOT entrepreneur)? (2)
- 7.2 In which economic sector will this career qualify and what does this sector entail? (2)
- 7.3 What is the main career field mentioned in the article? (1)
- 7.4 Would Johnson have had to study to follow this field? (1)
- 7.5 How many years minimum would he have had to study to get into this field in South Africa? (1)
- 7.6 Name TWO (2) institutions you could study for this field in South Africa. (2)
- 7.7 What would be the typical working environment for someone following Johnson's career? (1)

- 7.8 How did Johnson get enough capital to start up his projects? (1)
- 7.9 Determine the FOUR (4) main events in Johnson's life leading him to eventually create the Super Soaker. (4)

[15]

SECTION B: 30 MARKS

SECTION C: 30 Marks

Only answer TWO (2) of the THREE (3) following questions. Please read all instructions as these can affect your marks. Your essays should be at least a page long.

QUESTION 8

Construct an essay in which you discuss the advantages of living in a multi-religious society based on the following criteria:

- 8.1 Briefly explain FIVE (5) largely practiced religions in South Africa.
- 8.2 Critically discuss FIVE (5) advantages of living in a multi-religious society in South Africa.

[15]

AND/OR

QUESTION 9

Imagine you are a famous sportsperson in any sport code you choose. Prepare a speech for the next boys' assembly where you define and critically discuss (and include examples about) the following points in terms of sport:

- 9.1 doping
- 9.2 match fixing

9.3 subjective umpiring

9.4 gamesmanship

9.5 maladministration

[15]

AND/OR

QUESTION 10

Your local newspaper has asked you as to write a newspaper article to explain to readers the difference between social and environmental injustices. Using the images below and your knowledge on this subject write the article by including the following criteria:

10.1 provide THREE (3) distinct differences between social and environmental injustices

10.2 include TWO (2) contemporary (modern-day) examples of each

10.3 suggest FIVE (5) practical ways that the youth can attempt to rectify these wrongs.

[15]

SECTION C: 30 MARKS

End of Paper

TOTAL: 80 MARKS